Roero

The Roero is located in southern Piedmont, just across the Tanaro river from the Langhe, the area that includes Barolo and Barbaresco. The Roero growing area includes 19 'comuni' (towns). From the 2017 vintage, all vineyards within the area are legally delimited. Roero is famous for Arneis, Piedmont's signature white wine. Through our meticulous selection, you will also discover outstanding Nebbiolo wines that possess the same elegance, perfume, structure and finesse that characterise the Roero's most famous neighbours.

Barolo

The Barolo growing area is a complex designation of vineyards largely located in the core comuni of Barolo, Castiglione Falletto, Serralunga d'Alba and Monforte d'Alba and encompasses parts of several other famous comuni such as La Morra, Novello and Verduno, to name a few. Strict DOCG appellation rules ensure that vineyards must also possess favourable exposition, incline, comparative altitude and humidity. Barolos can differ significantly in taste due to the local topography, microclimate, vinification and the Nebbiolo grape's inherent ability to convey all these variables in the glass.
