Alta Langa / Metodo Classico

Known as the "Champagne of Piedmont" - Pinot Noir and Chardonnay grapes are harvest by hand prior to fermentation. Vinification and ageing follow the traditional 'méthode champenoise.' Ageing is a minimum of 24 months for Metodo Classico and 30 months for Alta Langa. Ultravino are proud to exclusively represent the soaring heights that these limited production "challenger to grower champagne" bubbles can rise to in the UK market.

Wine List

Alto Piemonte

Alto Piemonte is centred within the provinces of Biella, Novara and Vercelli, in the northern part of Piedmont and has been a well-known wine region for centuries thanks to its complex mineral-rich soil and ideal microclimate. Nebbiolo is king here even though many growers produce blends (called 'Uvaggio') with small proportions of local grapes: Vespolina, Croatina and Uva Rara. Ultravino are proud to exclusively represent Fabio Zambolin, a true Alto Piemonte 'Garagista' who makes 3,000 bottles per year from his 1.5 hectares of vineyard located right on the border of the acclaimed Lessona designation.

Dogliani

Dogliani is a small wine region located just a few miles south of Barolo. Dolcetto, a Piedmont black native grape variety, is king here and planted in the very best sites. It yields intense, complex, deeply mineral and age-worthy wines. We are delighted to represent two winemakers, both with a phenomenal local reputation: Eraldo Revelli, family run cantina since 1930, locally known as the 'go to' producer for classically structured Dolcetto and Nicholas Altare, considered by many as one of the most promising young winemakers of the entire region.

Monferrato

Monferrato commences on the North / Eastern flank of Barbaresco and as a wine production region it looks naturally raw in comparison. Gone are the carefully manicured, picture perfect landscapes of Barolo and Barbaresco replaced by a panorama of 'stripped-back' viticulture. An ideal environment for a new breed of hot-shot winemakers with a focus on absolute quality to produce some of the downright best Barbera and Moscato known to humankind.

Roero

The Roero is located in southern Piedmont, just across the Tanaro river from the Langhe, the area that includes Barolo and Barbaresco. The Roero growing area includes 19 'comuni' (towns). From the 2017 vintage, all vineyards within the area are legally delimited. Roero is famous for Arneis, Piedmont's signature white wine. Through our meticulous selection, you will also discover outstanding Nebbiolo wines that possess the same elegance, perfume, structure and finesse that characterise the Roero's most famous neighbours.

Barolo

The Barolo growing area is a complex designation of vineyards largely located in the core comuni of Barolo, Castiglione Falletto, Serralunga d'Alba and Monforte d'Alba and encompasses parts of several other famous comuni such as La Morra, Novello and Verduno, to name a few. Strict DOCG appellation rules ensure that vineyards must also possess favourable exposition, incline, comparative altitude and humidity. Barolos can differ significantly in taste due to the local topography, microclimate, vinification and the Nebbiolo grape's inherent ability to convey all these variables in the glass.
